

“9/11 Memorial: A Photo Essay”

Photo Galley

Hwa Young Caruso and John Caruso, Jr.
Art Review Editors

Return to the Art Review

Map Board, 9/11 Memorial Entrance
Construction of 1776 ft. tall 1WTC, aka Freedom Tower
Reconstruction of World Trade Center Plaza
Swamp White Oak Trees in Front of 9/11 Memorial Museum
Memorial Museum, Scheduled to Open in September 2012
South Memorial Pool Facing Memorial Museum
South Memorial Pool
South Memorial Pool with Names of First Responders
North Memorial Pool Adjacent to Memorial Museum
North Memorial Pool
Family Making a Brass Rubbing of a Victim’s Nam, North Memorial Pool
Name Locator Kiosk
FDNY Battalion Chief’s Helmet, 9/11 Memorial Museum
Victim’s Wallet and Personal Items, 9/11 Memorial Museum

Map Board, 9/11 Memorial Entrance

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

Construction of 1776 ft. tall 1WTC, aka Freedom Tower,
9/11 Memorial Plaza

Photo by John Caruso Jr.

Reconstruction of World Trade Center Plaza

Photo by John Caruso Jr.

Swamp White Oak Trees in Front of 9/11 Memorial Museum

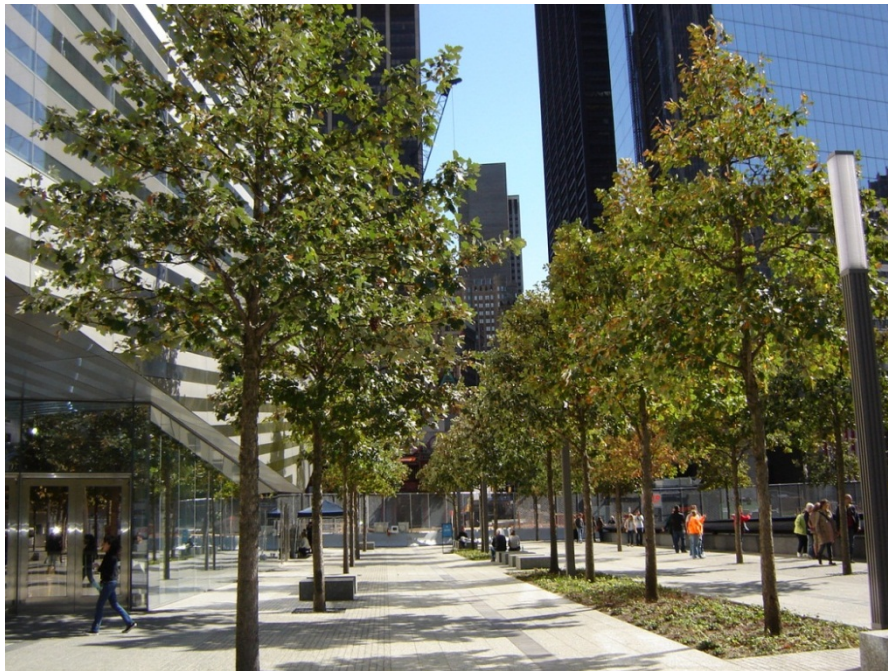

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

Memorial Museum, Scheduled to Open in September 2012

Photo by John Caruso Jr.

South Memorial Pool Facing Memorial Museum

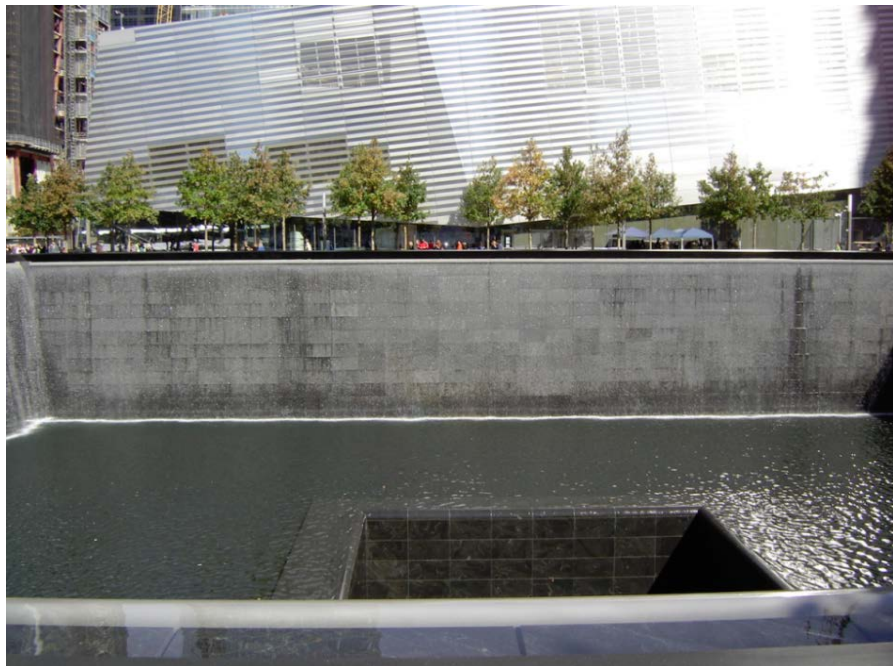

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

South Memorial Pool

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

South Memorial Pool with Names of First Responders

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

North Memorial Pool Adjacent to Memorial Museum

Photo by John Caruso Jr.

North Memorial Pool

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

Family Making a Brass Rubbing of a Victim's Nam, North Memorial Pool

Photo by John Caruso Jr.

Name Locator Kiosk

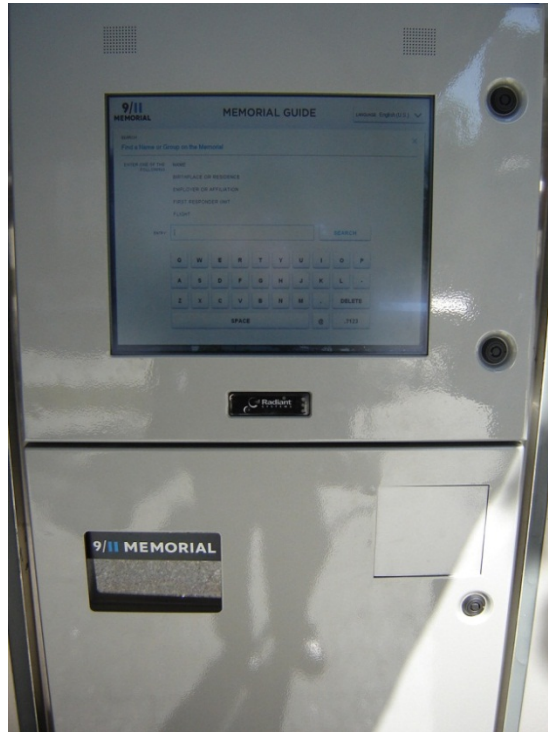

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

FDNY Battalion Chief's Helmet, 9/11 Memorial Museum

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso

Victim's Wallet and Personal Items, 9/11 Memorial Museum

Photo by Hwa Young Caruso